The Forgotten Temple Coco Saltzgeber

Main Characters: CoCo Saltzgeber-main character ; Debbie Fitzgerald-Partner; Karin Saltzgeber -sister; Sergeant Bennett-Detective; Mr. Reeves- Karin's Defense Attorney ; Darla-Police Assistant (Angel in disguise). Readers will notice how the story, is a journey the opens up to an insightful experience of rediscovering the pain and anguish, that keeps one from moving forward in everyday life. The story will go back and forth, from the past to the present. The Plot is finding what CoCo believes to be her Temple within herself. That sacred place she can go to pray and meditate. As she enters her Temple, she realizes she has not been in there for a very long time. There is only a stream of light shining in, and cobwebs and stacks of pain and fear sitting on old carved shelves. As she starts to release the fear and pain that has stopped her from moving forward in so many area of her life, she notice's the temple walls cracking around her. One of her greatest pains is her sister Karin's death. With the support of her partner Debbie, CoCo starts to release and forgive these experiences. As she does so, more light shines in her temple. In doing do so, the light comes in as the back wall of the temple start to fall apart. Looking through the cracks and holes left behind, she sees a place of beauty and the energy is so inviting. As she forgives the man who killed her sister, a piece of the back wall blew off. Peering through she felt compelled to walk on the other side of the blown out wall. Moving along she discovers this place is her true temple, her real place to come and talk to God and listen. She had covered it up to protect it from the world and all its negativity. There is a Work Book attached to assist the reader if they so choose, to start finding and releasing all the stored pain and non-forgiveness in their life's. It is a chance to be free, of that which keeps them from their very best in life. Once CoCo found her Forgotten Temple, she shares two meditation m
