Good Intentions Mr Stephen G.D Jackley

Sometimes you can do the wrong thing for the right reason. Sometimes you cannot allow any barrier to stand before a dream. Even if that barrier is the law. For Steve and Sarah, the means really do justify the end. They have chosen to steal from the richest in an attempt to end the suffering of the poorest. The tantalising prospect of advancing one great leap towards their dream is too much to resist, and a casino heist promises to make all the difference. But as police investigators draw closer and a shadowy organisation looms in the background, they soon realise that they are playing for much bigger stakes. Pursuing some of the greatest problems that face our time, this story will both enlighten and entertain. Be ready. Be prepared. Change is coming...
