Praise for AMERICUS: "One of the better dystopian worlds I've ever encountered. ... I was completely hooked once I got a taste. ... It's the kind of world you dream about, half-thinking it's real out there, somewhere." – JC Andrijeski, USA Today best-selling author "... a fragmented, alternative United States divided and crippled ... super soldiers gone rogue ... a solid and engaging SF saga." – Ken Scholes, award-winning author of the Psalms of Isaak series "TS Vale is one of the most amazing word wizards I know. This first installment in her new post-apocalyptic AMERICUS series is no exception. If you like smart dystopian fiction that entertains AND makes you think, this is a must-read." – Ruth Nestvold, international award winning science fiction and fantasy author AMERICUS • HIGH ROAD CROSS In a war-torn post apocalyptic America, Bill does not have a choice. To save what he loves, he must find and stop a deadly transhuman soldier gone rogue — his own biological father. And for that, he must become what he despises. Says William Z.J. Holloway, aka Bill, aka Ace: "Bring it on." AMERICUS • Exscendent • Series Overview In a grim and deeply divided post-apocalyptic America, forgiveness is not a part of anyone's plans. It falls to one reluctant super soldier, an outcast among his own kind, to force a way to peace instead of punishment ... if he can survive the hell it will inflict on him.
