Her sins went well beyond the sheets. Everyone believed hardworking, “good girl” Rainey Thomas always did the right thing, but the truth was Rainey had done plenty wrong. The bar for living holy established by her deceased mother was too high. Rainey and her sisters were drowning in their desires as they warred with their mother and her strict practices, even from the grave. What Rainey needed was atonement for her sins. She kept up appearances until the web of a major drug trafficker ensnared her. Malik Johnson made Rainey feel alive. He not only pushed her sexual appetite button, he enraptured her mind and captivated her soul. He was her soul mate, but was he good for her soul? With Malik, Rainey saw herself for who she really was, and the choices she made would have devastating consequences. Will Rainey find herself before she adds more regrets? Will finding herself cause her to lose her God?
