The Whole Green World Tony Johnston
Come and dance the whole green world!

*I've got a little pair of shoes.
(Comfy, cozy little shoes.)
Got a little pair of shoes to walk the whole round world.*

After putting on her red shoes, a girl and her shaggy dog set out to plant the whole world. During the course of their imaginary journey they have many helpers - birds, insects, and sun among them - and then return home to wait for the magic of spring. A catchy and rhythmic poem and collages infused with a riot of detail and color make this the perfect book for those who cherish all the things that beautify the earth.
