Mentoring a greenhorn in any profession can be challenging, delicate, and enormously rewarding -- as well as vital to the health of your workplace. The Adaptive Mentorship (AM) model is an effective approach, and this book explores how it can improve mentorship results. Thirty-five authors discuss mentorship in general, and focus on the key aspects and strengths of the AM model. Whether you're a student, an educator, or a professional already working in your field, you will find helpful tips for professional development.
