All Hallows' Eve: Rhymes That Frighten Ronald Allen Bell

Horror Poetry that reads as if it was penned by the Devil himself. Some of the most brilliant, creative and malicious verse that will ever cross your eyes. A must read for any book lover regardless of your preferred genre. This book contains pieces that fall under several different sub-categories, but each one marinated in blood and roasted to temp in the fires of Hell! The cover has been updated from it's original version, but the interior is all the same.
