The Handbook of Photographing Arizona (B&W Value Edition) Scott J. Waldron

This is the value edition of the book that has a black and white interior. If you are planning a trip to the Southwest, interested in learning more about taking photos in Arizona, or even just photography in general, this book is for you! I go over the technical basics of photography and how they relate to the conditions and situations you might face in Arizona, all from a Midwesterner's perspective and packaged in a nice portable 5.5" x 8.5" handbook. This book gives visual enjoyment with over 35 photos as well as important knowledge on photographic tools and information about various places in Arizona.
