Logic was doing his best to stay focused on just living. After the death of his brother, he made the decision to leave the streets alone. He couldn't imagine his mother have to bury another son or visit him in jail, but the idea of letting his brother's killer go free was really weighing heavily on him. Especially considering the fact that his brother's killer was the one person he used to trust the most. Joy had been watching Logic for months and knew that she had to have him. This man was everything. There was a certain mystery about him that really had her wanting more. She could tell that there was a reason why he walked around her local café like he owned the world, and thanks to her best friend Karma, Joy would soon find out. Once Logic and Joy meet, things immediately take off and the two seem destined to be together. But, Logic's past has resurfaced, causing him to make a decision that might force Joy to walk away. What's more important, revenge or love? Maybe they can handle both, only time will tell.
