Sin? Blissfully happy in a city of unending love, Kamíl has never even heard the word. But when her beloved elder brother introduces some innovative ideas to their society, her native language falls short in expressing many of her new experiences. Still, she gladly follows him down the exciting road he's blazing, hardly noticing the changes she's undergoing, until she finds herself trapped in a no-win situation. Head spinning, heart aching, she must now make the hardest decision of her life: Will she turn her back on the creator she loves ... or on the elder brother she adores? Have you ever wondered how angels nurtured in an atmosphere of perfect love could learn to hate? How those created for everlasting joy could choose carnage? Maybe their destiny changed in the same way ours does -- one choice at a time.
