The Blue Effect (A Renegade Heroes Novel) (Volume 1) Rose Shababy

Blue Brennan is jaded and bitter despite her pinup girl looks and quick wit. Night after night, she scours the Seattle club scene looking for someone or something to fill the emptiness inside. When she meets the mysterious Kasey, her world stops... literally. He claims she has the ability to control time and stuns her even further when he reveals his own gifts. Blue is inexplicably drawn to Kasey and reluctantly enters his world filled with a new breed of humanity. They're misfits like her, blessed or cursed with powerful abilities, struggling to hide their differences from the rest of society. Then the group discovers a nameless, faceless sociopath with nightmarish powers; and he's coming for Blue. She's left reeling when they discover her gifts are the key to defeating his terrible evil and saving them all. Now she must race against the clock to harness her own powers and save her new friends. Can she be more than a renegade? Can she be a hero too?
