Conversations With...: Sideways Journeys with My Children Kevin G. J. Freels

Those who have long believed nurture is stronger than nature, rejoice! Your proof is at hand. Kevin Freels and his wife Lynne tried for years to have a family, but when science could not help, they adopted two children from Taiwan, first their son Paden, and a year later, their daughter Emma. Over the years, these two children whose genetics and birth culture could not have been more different from their parents', have grown into what their friends and family have conceded is a perfect blend of Kevin and Lynne's personalities and character - Kevin's intelligence and warped humor, and Lynne's outspokenness and tenacity. Paden and Emma's views on life are at once amusing, insightful, absurd, and downright spot on. Over the years Kevin has recorded their conversations and sent them out via email and Facebook for friends and family to enjoy. I'm so pleased that he has gathered them all together into a book, as it gets harder and harder to track down a specific post to share with a friend or coworker. I hope you enjoy this collection of priceless gems - they are laugh-out-loud funny, and much easier to share with friends than posts from "Darn You Autocorrect."
