Haunted Dover Lorraine Sencicle

The historic port of Dover has had its fair share of waifs and strays traveling through it over the course of many years. The castle, pubs, and labyrinth of subterranean chambers under the famous white cliffs host a variety of ghouls and spectres. From the old woman in grey of Biggin Street forever waiting for her last confession, to the ghost of the Archbishop Geoffrey whose screams have been heard on stormy nights as he is dragged from Dover college to the castle, "Haunted Drover" provides a plethora of chilling tales. Lorraine Sencicle delves into the history surrounding the stories to discover the probably reasons behind the hauntings. This spine-tingling book will fascinate anyone who dares to read it.
