This is a hand written Art Muse Zine in Black and white, expressing the thoughts and outcomes of a woman's dire emotional process that began with an emergency surgery on a dark and stormy night in a rain shadowed city in a hospital where the generators weren't always working properly, an emergency surgery after a bad haircut given in a back street ghetto salon, a gift from a cheap red headed friend who looked like a priest, which haircut had led the surgeon to address her as Mr. Simon, and ask about her prostate, causing her to cry and him to hastily change charts and get it right before she went into surgery.

And so she wrote the three short Musings in this book while she was recovering.

Lemon Girl and the Magic Shoe Box

The Story of Coral Gabba and the Gold Flower

The Amazing Adventures of Chef Pepper-King and Sir Basil - Soupstone in

"The Case of the Disappearing Cat"

Hand written and illustrated by the author.
