Horrifying events in the village of Fendyke St. Mary left lambs with their throats cut. This was followed by the disappearance and murder of six young children, all with their throats cut. Then in Witch's House, a local derelict cottage, the corpses of two men and two women were found, all poisoned. Yet, strangely, the murder had occurred whilst the cottage was surrounded by snow, and the murderer had escaped after locking the door - leaving no tracks! 'They Walk in Darkness' is not only an intriguing locked room mystery, but a story steeped in the Occult, evoking a haunting supernatural atmosphere. This new edition features an introduction by horror fiction authority John Pelan and an afterword by the author's son Chris Verner.
