Wheeler: a novel Sara Butler Zalesky

It is mid-June as the Women's Elite team of Innovative Design Cycling prepares for the Aviva Women's Tour, beginning in Bury St. Edmunds, England. American pro cyclist, Loren Mackenzie reluctantly accepts her new role as team captain and focuses on rebuilding her team after a disappointing showing in Philadelphia's International Cycling Classic. While out on a training ride near Enfield, England, Fate spins the Wheel of Fortune and Loren's tightly wound life begins to unravel. When a Knight in a shiny Jaguar, actor Graham Atherton, happens upon Loren's unfortunate situation, each feels the undeniable draw toward the other, and their touch holds a sense of familiarity. As their whirlwind romance intensifies, so does the media attention, much to Loren's chagrin. The World Tour continues with exciting races across Europe where the IDC Women's Elite team face defeat and achieve victory, solidifying the relationships between the teammates. But intimidation and jealousy stalk Loren, conspiring to not only put her chances at the World Championship in jeopardy but also force her to confront the phantoms of a past she had long buried - for a good reason. Can Loren face the trauma of her past and vanquish the demons within, or will betrayal and obsession ultimately defeat her?
