Conversations with Peter Eisenman: The Evolution of Architectural Style Vladimir Belogolovsky

Peter Eisenman's architecture carries many layers and meanings; one question leads to the next and one conversation provokes another. Vladimir Belogolovsky's new book highlights three separate conversations he had with the architect at his New York City studio in October 2003, June 2009, and February 2016. These conversations are part of the author's ongoing interview project he initiated in 2002, discussing architecture with over 100 leading international architects.
