We all have heard the sayings... “There are no good men out here...” “All men are dogs...” “All men cheat...” “He's a womanizer...” Some of this could be true. However, could it be that you're to blame for some of his behavior? Could it be that you could have controlled or manipulated the situation and then let your emotions get the best of you? It has been said that men think with both heads. My question is, ladies, what do you think with? In this book we will take a raw, un-cut journey on how and why men do what they do. Also, what women can do differently in the relationship to prevent heart-break. I want to help prevent you being broken up and up late at night crying on the phone with your girl. I don't want any more of you stalking your baby daddy or acting un-lady like. I want to enlighten you on the thought process of many men and help you have a healthy successful relationship. After reading this book you will have a better understanding and see where you went wrong in choices of men and how to correct them. I want to help you move forward and understand that, Men Do What Women Allow.
