MC: Pres: Book 4 (Volume 4) L. Ann Marie

Ben James was groomed to become a new kind of MC President. He understands the way people think and stays a step ahead in the ever changing world his MC is building. Maintaining the 'clean' community they're building for their families is not easy. Every Club and gang wants either a piece of their businesses or to sell within their town. When things start moving in the right direction his wife leaves him for a more exciting life of Club mayhem and destruction. She misses the way it used to be. Ben raises his son with the help of his Brothers but misses sharing his life with a partner. Danny has become one of his closest Brothers, he has an idea and puts a plan in motion to get the one thing he's missing in his life, a partner. His relationship with Kate is solid but they both want more. Pres is just the kind of guy that can handle Danny's unassuming but charismatic nature and match him in honor, respect and loyalty. Adding a partner to an established couple isn't easy. Jealousy, expectations and the potential to ruin what's already in place is the price adding that partner comes with. Danny is willing to do whatever it takes to make and keep Kate happy, even if it's pulling the plug on Pres and the idea of a third in the bedroom and in their life.
