Sometimes you see people that you admire because of their faithful and demonstrated Christian walk, the way they conduct themselves or the intelligence that they display and you want to walk up to them to compliment them or you desire to learn from them the things that you have noticed and admired in them (mentoring). Some people never summon the courage to approach others for this type of reason while some have approached the people they admired and they enjoyed a very rewarding and fulfilling mentoring relationship; but there are those who have been disappointed by the response that they received or the reaction of the person they approached. Whatever have been your previous experience, this workbook is designed to help you approach mentoring in a godly way that will minimize your disappointment and eliminate any hidden fears or apprehensions. God's commandment to us through the Apostle Paul in 2 Timothy 2:2 is: "And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also." -----
