This epic book of poetry is lifetime in the making for new author Eric Everett Mansfield. It is a complete collection of 30 years Eric's writing from 1986-2016, and contains over 200 poems & poetry fragments, plus nearly 20 songs with chords. The poems and songs range from childish to brilliant(?) - and which are which are left to the reader to decide - as we follow the poet's journey through life, love and light. Here is a sample of Eric's work:

I like poetry That is soft to the touch, That has safe transition, And rhymes a little too much.
Poetry like that Is from the heavens above, And if you don't like it, I'll give you a shove. I like poetry That's got simple rhyme, That falls off the tongue, And has simple time. Poetry like that Is rather pleasant to hear, And if you don't like it, I'll rip off your ear. I like poetry That speaks about Love, That tells of great Beauty, And the stars up above. Poetry like that Is romantic and gay, And if you don't like it, I'll blow you away.
