French Postcards Jane Merchant

When Elinor moves to France with her husband and two children, she never expects that her life is about to be changed forever.

A mysterious Frenchwoman soon draws her attention, and Elinor finds herself inexplicably enchanted and unsure of herself.

As a fascinating friendship develops between Elinor and the elusive and lovely woman, Elinor must confront a startling new independence that upsets all of her conventional ideas of love, life and desire.

This captivating and haunting novel is one that readers won't soon forget.
