SIX DAYS IN SIBERIA is a suspense thriller with overtones of a spy novel, is set in Siberia, and resonates with realism and authenticity. This tightly drawn story of disparate and desperate characters converging on a place and time in Siberia where each is intent on getting...out...before...it's...too...late will appeal to those who enjoy suspense, a taste of post-Soviet Russia, or just a good read in a relatively short time. For those with a taste for adventure and sense of what's going on in the world, SIX DAYS IN SIBERIA will fill out a quiet evening or make pleasant a long plane ride to anywhere. While there are a couple of raw situations, the language is PG.
