Contrasts: Jewish / Christian Robert Barry Davis

Contrasts: Jewish/Christian is a concise, powerful work that examines the gap of belief that has developed between Judaism and Christianity. Christianity began as a branch of Judaism but the two have grown far apart in some concepts and Spiritual strengths. The Jewish concepts of terms as opposed to words open the understanding of scriptures. Debate over original sin, repentance, faith verses works, replacement Theology, life after death, and spiritual ways to seek God's Presence are dealt with. The Christian taboo subject of marital intimacy is to the Jew an act most holy. The Jew stands on the Oneness of God as much as the Christian on the Trinity. This book can provide eye-opening revelation of the Jew of the Christian beliefs and the Christian of the Jew beliefs. No one has a monopoly on God. There can always be better understanding and relationship with the Creator of all.
