I Am (Not a Hero, I Am a Survivor: The Story of Lou Van Coevorden Roxane Christ

From an Amazon reader review: "This story begins in with Lou's life growing up in Amsterdam. It progresses with his very intimate and personal description of how his Jewish family's small world slowly changed under Nazi rule. Mr. Coevorden was in 14 different concentration camps in just 3 years. I will not spoil the rest of the story. Keep in mind when you read this book. It is not written in "official and proper" publishing format. Rather the text is more conversational, as if Mr coevorden was sitting on the couch relating his story to a friend. While the subject matter is heavy, the story itself is an easy read. You will enjoy the personal story.
