Early Start On The Violin - Book 1..... A violin method for children age four and older. By Egon Sassmannshaus; Kurt Sassmannshaus. Illustrations: Charlotte Panowsky. For Violin. Instructional Method. (64 pages.) Published by Baerenreiter Verlag. Note reading is introduced from the beginning, and accidentals are explained in the easiest way in the first volume. By the end of the first book, many English children's songs using all fingers have been played and note values from whole to eighth notes have been introduced. Even the easiest exercises are underlaid with text so that melodies can be perceived as a whole. The child-friendly and age-appropriate text underlying the music enables children to perceive melodies as a whole and to understand their singable qualities. The large print notes and text as well as many colorful illustrations are particularly child-friendly and very attractive to pre-school children and school children alike. Songs and scales in different positions are easily explained and mastered within the first year. This is an important advantage over methods that confine children to the first position for many years. Note reading is emphasised from the first lesson -- children are brought up to become proficient sight-readers and play in chamber music ensembles as early as possible. In contrast to other beginner violin methods, The Sassmannshaus Tradition progresses swiftly by introducing advanced violin techniques in rudimentary form, such as shifting and varied bow strokes. Ensemble playing is encouraged from the very beginning. The method is suitable for single instruction as well as for group and class lessons. The substantial volumes contain comprehensive material and carefully calibrated learning curves. They keep children curious and interested for many months and years.
